Ten Guns and One Thousand pation of Atlanta by General Sherman's forces. Prsoners Taken.

HOOD BLOWS UP HIS MAGAZINES.

Le Leaves Atlanta in the Night. Sherman over the Rebels at Atlanta.

SLOCUM TAKES POSSESSION, the town.

" Atlanta Ours, and Fairly Won."

Official Dispatches from the War Depart- of one hundred guns will be first this evening.

micut. PIRST DISPATCH.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASSINGTON, Sept. 3-8 p. s To Moj.-Gen. Dix: No intelligence from Atlan- at Lynn, Belfast, Me., and other ; lees. to later than my telegram of last night has been

Chattanooga were broken last night by Wheeler, crowd of several thousand participated in the reand we have had nothing south of Nashville to-day. joicings, and they were addressed by Hon, Roscoe Unotherst reports this evening from Nashville ctate that the damage done by Wheeler to the rail Yesterday was a gala-day in Auburn over the caprood will be speedily repaired, and that Wheeler had ture of Atlanta. At an early hour flogs were hoist Petrosted. General Rousseau being in parsuit; that ed in all parts of the city. At 5 p. us. all the bells er's forces the Rebel General Kelly was mortally guns was fired. Immediately a great crowd, includwounded, and is in our hands.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Sourctary of War. SECOND DISPATCE,

Grant has just been received:

mys that the War Department, having no official infer- dence of Secretary Seward. tion, declines to form an opinion from the ramore. great success there. Before the dispatch of last night retary's grounds. After the crowd had halted in the afternoon and is still prevailing beyond Lou- and the Union. by the afternoon and is still prevaining beyond Lou-laville, may damage the line so as to binder the while, may damage the line so as to binder the Line the evening the Governor was serenaded by the Abburn band, to which he responded briefly, thankcrival of details from Atlanta for a day or two.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Sherman's official report of the capture of Atlanta one hundred guns has just been fired. has just been received by this Department. It is south of Atlanta, 6 o'clock vesterday morning, but was detained by the breaking of the Federal salute was fired here on Saturday evening, but was detained by the breaking of the Federal salute was fired here on Saturday evening, but was detained by the breaking of the Federal salute was fired here on Saturday evening. Brigades, Ross's, Armstrong's, and Fergusen's, Armstrong's, Armstrong

Atlanta, and on the 30th had made a break of the East enthusiasm provailed.

Intrenehed his troops, the salient within half a mile of but was easily repulsed, leaving his dead and wounded.

"In the night the energy retreated south and we have followed him to another of his hastily-constructed at sundown. Kilpatrick's Division taking the advance, hill, it presented a fine taking the presented a fine to improve the grand at sundown. Kilpatrick's Division taking the advance, hill, it presented a fine taking the presented a fine taking taking the presented a fine taking tak lines near Lovejoy's Station. Hood at Altianta, flading marching toward Jonesboro', a pretty listle town on the between him and a considerable part of his army, blew twenty-five miles from Landtown. Three miles from the third this thilling charge, some very ladicrous scenes twenty-five miles from Landtown. Three miles from Landtown our advance guard encountered the Rebei wounded, and over fifteen hundred well.

Atia nte last night (the 3d) at 9 p. m., states that the enemy destroyed seven locomotives and eightythe enemy destroyed seven locomotives and eightyone cas loaded that ammunition, small arms and left further prices of artitlers with ammunition, small arms and left further prices of artitlers with ammunition, small arms and left further prices of artitlers with ammunition, and left further prices of artitlers with our men so eagerly sought. The the carriage of the fact that Gen. Smith was supposed to be hold.

Minty's Brigade, which was in the rear of Kilpatrick's but the cannot by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of the inditing, and builtets. The enemy's skirmishers fled to the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday builting, and returned the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday builting, and returned the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of Kilpatrick's but line they are the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of Kilpatrick's but like more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the rear of the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but the first hand been mare by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but taken more by surprise than they were here on Sanday but t stores, and left fourteen pieces of artiflery, most of naturally, caused considerable commotion, rendering them uninjured, and a large number of small arms. many of the horses unmanageable. The excitement was remove the guns, and they were destroyed by bursting. Deserters are constantly coming into our lines. EDWIN M. STANTON, Sec. of War.

Bejoleings Over the Capture of Atlanta. 3

of the Adjutant-General. THOY, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1864.

A salute of one hundred guns was fired in this city this noon in honor of the capture of Atlanta by General Sherman's forces.

Gred here to-day in honor of the great victory of our progress was savagely disputed inch by inch, the of infantry had been marching rapidly, with the expec-General Sherman at Atlanta.

CAPTURE OF ATLANTA. TOTAL TOTAL Account. Tribune.

Vol. XXIV No. 7,305.

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5. 1864.

PRICE FOUR CENTS.

There was a parade of the 16th U. S. infantand a saints will be fired this evening in commemo ration of the victory over the Rebels and the occu-

The fall of Atlanta was celebrated here during the day by a display of flags, and this evening by the discharge of cannon, bonfires and speeches. New-Haves Conn., Sept. 3, 1864.

A National Salute was fired on the Green by order of the city authorities, and the bells of the city rung at sunset in honor of the great victory of Gen.

One hundred guns are now being fired in bonor of Sherman's victory and the filing of the quote of New London, Cenn., Sept. 3, 1864. One hundred guns were fired here to-day in honor of the fall of Atlanta.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 3, 1864. There is great rejoicing here to-day over the news of the fell of Atlants. Flags are flying, and a salute concealed in the various buildings, and as on Boston, Sept. 3, 1864.

One hundred guns were fired on Boston Common this afternoon as an expression of public rejoicing at the capture of Atlanta. Salates were also fired UTICA, N.Y., Sept

The telegraphic lines between Nashville and his evening, with bonires, music and speeches. A CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 4. No doubt is entertained of the correctness of the A large and enthusiastic meeting met on the reports received last night, which came from two public square last night to calciumte the capture of independent sources, besides the official disputch Atlanta. Fireworks were displayed, and the cluizens were addressed by prominent men.

> to be mustered in, assembled in front of the Western Exchange.

ring and eloquent speech. He was followed by Provort-Marshal Knapp in an effective address of half How. E. M. Stanton: I have a Blehmond paper of to an hour. After he concluded it was proposed that the crowd form in procession and march to the resi-

The growd had now become so large that they were obliged to go to the part adjoining the So our troops, the fact was known to our pickets. The the park Mr. Seward was called for, and came for-

Our South-western Telegraph Line continues and Seward, which were given with a hearty good down, and this, with a heavy storm that commenced will. Three more were then given for the soldiers ing the band for the compliment.

BURLINGTON, VT., Sept 3. To Major-General Dix, New-York:-General of Atlanta. Flags are displayed, and a salute of a cre withdrawn by Cen. Ellipatrick, who at once dis but hard, buter fighting. Our citizens are wild with joy over the capture Selegraph lines mentioned in my dispatch of last in honor of the victory at Atlanta. Speeches were edus in the rear opening on us with several pieces of our wounded were brought in, among whom are the following officers:

aight.

In honor of the victory at Atlanta. Speeches were edus in the rear opening on us with several pieces of our wounded were brought in, among whom are the following officers:

our wounded were brought in, among whom are the following officers:

our wounded were brought in, among whom are the following officers:

ELFORE ATLANTA, Go., Aug. 25, 1864. the railroad. The enemy attacked him at three p. m .. Early on the morning of the 18th the 1st Brigade of this Division, Col. E. H. G. Minty, commanding, Finding strong opposition on the road, I advanced with the Socood Brigade, Col. Eli Long, now Brigadie a ground Jonesboro.

"We made a general attack on the enemy at Jones.

"We made a general attack on the enemy at Jones.

"The first of September, the Fourteenth Core."

To silence these batteries and rout the Cave and military movements which begin to-day. Our energy on the first of September, the Fourteenth Core. Doro on the first of September, the Fourteenth Corps.

Gen. Jeff. C. Davis, carrying the works handsomely.

Battery, four game, Capt. Beebe commanding, remained alry, it was necessary to charge up this hill, and then the literarchy of the works handsomely.

Battery, four game, Capt. Beebe commanding, remained alry, it was necessary to charge up this hill, and then the literarchy of the works handsomely.

L. E. E. Davis, carrying the works handsomely.

In came until sundown untiling with Kilpariek's old down a valley which was intersected with ravines.

L. E. E. Davis, carrying the works handsomely. Cavairy Division, of three brigades. Everything being deep cuts, and plaided with rail fences. The moment in readiness, the expedition was in motion sentiment the head of our column was visible on the crest of the THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST. me on his road, the only one that could supply him, and Macon and Western Railroad, in Fayette County, about opportunity to slaughter the "Yankee" vandals. Du Fram our Special Correspondent. three hundred Kebel dead, two hundred and fifty mishing, but the enemy were posted in strong positions, "W. T. Sherman, Major-General." from which only a force sufficiently large to final them could rout them. Early on the morning of the 19th. Col. A later despatch from Gen. Slocum, dated at Minty's Brigade, which was in the rear of Kilpatrick's quickly so disposed his forces as to repulse the enemy and bring order out of chara. This attack cost but little, our total loss being one man ALBANY, Sept. 3, 1864. | killed, two or three elightly wounded, and eight or ten One hundred guns were fired here at noon to-day, horses killed and stampeded. Col. Long's Brigade now seven shooters. After retreating two miles our ad-

taking of Atlanta by Gen. Sherman's forces. Two this point Gen. Long was quite severely though not reached there of corpresence in their rear. Brig. Gen. completely surprised, were driven back a short dis taking of Atlanta by Gen. Sherman's forces. Two this point Gen. Long was quite severely though not reached there of our reached there our reached there of our reached there of o works set off, with bondies, torchlight processions, was a sail misfortune, and as the news spread it ereated the artacks of this beauty, but not without consideraworms seriou, with nomines, torening the processions, and send the resent at day Several duries and specifics. The streets are filled with an im- a feeling of dispondency among Gen. Long streets, who his loss in men and acrees. Finding we were so closely were made by the enemy for the purpose of dispositions. mander, whose dauntless courage and stablern skill they forcements close at hand, Gen. Ki patrick deemed it immanager, whose dansations a bard fought field. Notwith prudent to hazard mother engagement, unless necessity to Memphis, while the remainder, with a train of 10 when the Rebels turned and drove our men back. In nave witnessed of all wounds. Gen. Long re-should compet kin to light for the preservation of his wagens, stopped behind to keep open the line of retreat, the meanwhile. Wood's and Kincaide's Brigades were ry, stationed at Port Ontario, this afternoon, fused to leave his seddle and he remained in fell command little army. During one of the sairmishes the Chicago In this after with the Rebels lost II men brought is to line and moved down from the apper part during the entire expedition. His remarkable exide Board of Trade Sattery burst one of its pieces, and killed, 5 mortally wounded, and about 20 horses. Their this of bereism inchies the troops with the wildest broke the trail of another gun by the recoil of the gun. entire less in wounded has not been ascertained. Our et line, the enemy was discovered drawn up in line of enthusiesm, and they dashed into the fight with loud, This deprived usof two pieces of valuable Artillery. ringing cheers, which greatly astanished the Robels. At about the some time the 4th Regulars had entirely it was at this time that an overwhelming force of Robwho supposed the cheering was occasioned by the ar- exhausted their supply of ammunition. The enemy who supposed the energy to come the energy to come the enderty discovered this mishap, and they availed them. Buttery, together with 13 prisoners. The enemy to- our line advanced. The nature of the ground prevented mounted, and for six miles the enemy were entremeded selves of our misfirtune by a more taun generous quantity doubtedly had perfect information of the location and a general engagement, but vigorous skirmisting and a child these barriesdes. The enemy gradually retreat- of solid shot and abell. While Gen. Long was resisting excendit of our forces, and as unmay of his men had ford, skirmishing as they fell back toward. Filst River. the savage attacks upon our roar, this balance of our merly resided in the city, he had no difficulty in laying when the enemy was disloged and sent in full retreat On teaching Flint River, Gen. Kilpetrick found the command was retiring in good order. After keeping his plans. Reach well posted in a picturescue valley, with artillery the Kebels at bay for ever two hours. General Long fell | illinois Batteries in the service, was now ordered up the 4th Michigan and 7th Pennsylvania were charged Col. Jesse Forrest, dushed into the lower end of Benlcan too effective and the Rebel gams were ellenced. with great less. The 4th Ohio Cavalry, which had been of ten or fifteen in different directions, the others pro-The Rail- Brigade, complishing the 1st (Col. Europeaton, son of Sonroad depot was ordered to be destroyed, and two rolles after Egglester, of Ohlo), the 3d (Col. Sidell), and the From the fact that nearly every avenue of communication Robells of track were also form up, the rails twisted and warped 4th (Lieut, Cel. Robie), behaved splendidly, win- tion between the different parts of the city was stopped by his captors relieved bits of the gullty blouse, which he McIntyre's Regiment, 4th Regular Cavalry, were em-This accounts for the absence of later information Conking, Hon. Ward Hunt and Ellis H. Roberts, esq. hornes, for it must be real embered that one man is re-through McDemengh on the evening of the 19th, and in an engagement between Rensseau's and Wheel commenced ringing, and a salve of one hundred a desperate charge, and drive the enemy from their on horses across the stream. To form some idea of the ing several hundred volunteers who were waiting who reported infinity advancing in large force from the artillery and ambiliances were submerged completely Maj. Gen. Dix: The following telegram from Gen. topher Morgan addressed the assemblage in a stir. cight miles East, and then and only turned in a south catur and thence back to the rear of our army, where or Jennings companding, who were then in one ad- number of prisoners, besides two buttle flags, one

The Fourth Regulars, Capt. J. B. McIntyre, z Texau. which and some the strength of the following persons:—Sherman, Grant, Sheriam, One South-western Telegraph Line contingers

Angular asset the assembling for over an noar which were the strength of the following inserption on a tasty surely strength of the following inserption, on a tasty surely strength of the following inserption, on a tasty surely strength of the following inserption, on a tasty surely strength of a bine sik strength of the following inserption, on a tasty strength of a bine sik strength of the containing t cered by the timber, it was apparent that the contest yet the boldness with which it was executed atones in a taken. was an unequal one, and that to remain in such an ex measure for the lack of success. There was no surren intry Brigade, three Cavairy Brigades, commanded by Col. Mintz and Erig. Gen. clerk replied that he was not in the house, when Forrest prisoners. Besides this, the Rebels lost about 50 horses posed situation would entail a needless loss of life, both | dering to inferior numbers, no disgraceful retreating,

The Raid into Memphis.

were coacted, and a great many of our men were placed Like the hypochondrine who, being subject to bad his room, and the cigar stand in he public hall was withstanding the improbability of the first report "Since the Shi of May we have been in one constant String and Indians Cavalry, commanding the list Brigade of String and need rest. Our lesses will not according to the string and the string and the string and the string and the string are not been all a dream, the citizens of the mally down the hill, through the broken valley, subres for and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream; the citizens of Cockretal, the proprietor.

The AT midwight, Col. Kline, of the speciacle to witness the thousands of horsenen rushing chair to find he had been sleeping with his not proved to know principles of Cockretal, the proprietor. The ATT with the content of the citizens of the string in the sublight, our starry banners with the relizens of Members, our starry banners with the relizens of the citizens and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream; and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream; and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The citizens of the citizens of the mandly down the hill, through the broken valley, subres for and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream; the citizens of the mandly down the hill, through the broken valley, subres for and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream; the citizens of the mandly down the hill, through the broken valley, subres for and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The ATT was principles of Cockretal, the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The ATT was principled to the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The ATT was principled to the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The ATT was principled to the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream. The ATT was principled to the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream of been all a dream. The ATT was principled to the native and that his onstorary nightmare had been all a dream of been all a dream of the action and the had been all a dream of the gineental guidons, fluttering in the air, while the horses have just emerged from their periodical scare, which, anorted wildly as if inhaling the fumes of battle—shells in this testance at least, had a substantial origin, even bursting, carbines exploding, and all blending with the if the afflir was not near so bad as it might have been deafening cheers of our men, which were answered by Probably never were people, both civil and military, taken more by surprise than they were here on Sunday taken more by surprise than they were here on Sunday to the guard and called to the prisoners to make their escape. The guards retreated within the replaced from their periodical scare, which, a sinuated in the center of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military prison of the district, is litowever, there was certainly something the matter if not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military prison of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military prison of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military military in the center of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military military is a stancked about 5 o'clock by 150 Rebels, who fired upon the guard and called to the prisoners to make their escape. The guards retreated within the center of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the military, who fired upon the guard and called to the prisoners to make their escape. The guards retreated within the center of the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the city, and has about 100 in. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the city and the cell for the city. If not, wherefore the firing and the cell for the c were so badly injured by our shells that we could not remove the guns, and they were destroyed by bursting. The Daily Bullstin, 1 at were driven back by a portion of the bank and beginning to the proper military authorities, and consequently, when their pieces were discharged, it was naturally and of the bank and they were destroyed by bursting. many of the horses unmanageable. The excitement was soon quelled by the energy and skill of Col. Minty who I abould not fail to do justice to a brave little fellow. Orderly William Bailey, of Co. I. 4th Michigan Cavalry. This was all tree, but good hooses and forced marches street in time to take part in the defense of Irving whose gallantry was conspicuous during the raid. As our forces neared the Rebel buttery a high fence pre- forces under Forcest were seven Tennessee regiments. together to contend with the raiders, as they were seatvented our men from charging upon it, and private Bailey quickly dismounted, and removing the rails, dashed in among the dismayed Robel officers, killing the Caploft Oxford on Thursday evening, moving west to Paulo, ferent regiments encamped about the city. Gen. Dustin, Sure of Atlants, and also one hundred guns by order vence. Desultery shirmishing continued along the road tain of the head of a whence it proceeded by a direct route through Coldwater however, succeeded in getting together about 100 men, raids and surprises in fature. In twenty minutes after seading to Jonesboro for nearly two miles, but the Reb Lieuterant, who full lifeless at the gallant Sergeant's and Hernando to Memphis, reaching our picket line south militia and soldlers of the Provest Guard, while Gen. els were unable to cope with our resistless troops, many of whom were armed with the Spanger repeating rifle the guns taken from McCook on his recent raid. The the guns taken from McCook on his recent raid. The ing within sight of our pickets (and on account of the were fighting their way to Court-square, when their the guns taken from McCook on his recent raid. The ing within sight of our pickets (and on account of the Rebels now retreating toward McDonough, the pursuit darkness and the pursuit darkness and the pursuit darkness and the pursuit of the agreement of the 2d Militia regiment. vance discovered the enemy were posted behind strong barricules, formed of split rails. Cen. Long succeeded for the confusion of such a difficult charge is the line,) a body of about 400 men dashed past them and where more ammunition was procured. Gens. Dustin Eakarona, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1864.

Bells were rung and a salute of one hundred guns

they fell back to a second and stronger barrieade. Here

Sakarona, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1864.

barrieades, formed or spit rang. Conf. Long succeeded for the confusion of such a dimention was presented. The second and succeeding the second and stronger barrieade. Here

Sakarona, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1864.

barrieades, formed or spit rang. Conf. Long succeeded for the confusion of such a dimention was presented. The second and stronger barrieade. Here

Sakarona, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1864.

Bells were rung and a salute of one hundred guns

they fell back to a second and stronger barrieade. Here

toops were engaging these forces, a division

The pickets were of course scattered. Just within the Class Washington and the second and stronger barrieade. Here

toops were engaging these forces, a division

to the main road, and about 1,000 of them continued ou els succeeded in taking 2 guns of the 7th Wisconsin

ENTENNER OF THE REBUS INTO THE CITY. About to'clock Sunday morning (21st), the advance o Board of Trade Battery, one of the best 1st Brigade relieved him. While covering our retreat of the enemy, about four handred strong, under Lieux, few minutes afterward the main body came thundering toward them to learn the cause of the exci drove curion among he Rebels, and Licetensons Colonel Robin into town, and the whole city was at once in an aproon. They were going briskly toward the river. offed militia harrying to their respective armories, Klury), escaped. Several clerks employed in the house in quest of the owner. The latter, seeing them Assistant Adoption General's office were captured, coming, seized a bottle of whisky and set it on the table once commenced and every room, closet and corocr door, and while they stopped to drink the whisky, he got was pried into. They even ascended to the roof in over into the next effect and one ped. This was Capt. their anxiety to find him. Finally, after ransacking the Hetzfield of the 3d Militia Regiment.

fought them nearly two hours we learned that County, Ga." We explained some eighty prisoners, in that the coatingency in which he assumes to pay for the Fort. It turned out, however, that the militia were 7th Pa. and the 4th Regulars toing quilged to fight was quite heavy, particularly in horses. Although we otherwise he would not assume the obligation so wil woods on the opposite side of the river, where a band in an open field, while the Robels were thoroughly pro- hoped for richer results from this extensive expedition. Haggy. Two horses belonging to the General were also of guerrillas had been seen.

so Hense, on Front-street, which is the general stop- were released. one number of many last been lired.

BUBLINGTON, N. J., Sept. 4.

The Union League rooms were illuminated and a league rooms were illuminated and a league with this Infantry Brigade, these Cayalry league rooms were illuminated and a league with this Infantry Brigade, these Cayalry league rooms were illuminated and a league with this Infantry Brigade, these Cayalry league rooms were illuminated and a league with this Infantry Brigade, these Cayalry league rooms were illuminated and a league with this Infantry Brigade, these Cayalry league rooms were illuminated and a league rooms where the same of the public hall in wounded about 100 more. The number of negroes killed which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded is thought to be about 50. We killed and prisoners, of which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded and prisoners, of which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded and prisoners, of which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded and prisoners, of which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded and prisoners, of which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded and prisoners. The number of negroes killed which the office is situated until it was crowded with and wounded is thought to be about 50. We killed the contract made by Messers. Wright, Roberts, Rogers, and Rev.

"As already reported, the army withdraw from about thanks, and on the 30th had made a break of the East of an instant, and in a few moments our lines were thanks, and on the 30th had made a break of the East of an instant, and in a few moments our lines were thanks, and on the 30th had made a break of the East of an instant, and in a few moments our lines were found in the shape of a triangle. A charge was now determined upon to repel the assaults of the Cavalry, the tie Macon road, and reached a good position from which to the shape of a triangle. A charge was now determined upon to repel the assaults of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in the Bear of the Cavalry.

Kipputrick's Last Grand Raid in a few moments our lines were found the corn fifteen men, he went up-stairs to Gen. R. s room, and not finding him there proceeded from Raid in a few moments our lines were found to Gen. R. s room, and not finding him there proceeded from Raid in a few moments our lines were found to Gen. R. s room, and not finding him there proceeded from Raid in a few moments our lines were found to Gen. R. s room, and not finding him there proceeded from Raid in the shape of a triangle.

Capt II II McComitek the Regular missing since the 20th to Gen. R. s room, and not finding him there proceeded from Raid in the shape of a triangle in the shape of a triangle in the shape of a triangle in the shape of t Point road, and reached a good position from which to strike the Macon road—the right. (Howard) near-Jones-bore; the left (Schefield) near Rough and Ready, and the enter (Thomas) at Conch's.

The center (Thomas) at Conch's.

The position from the Rebel forces was a decidedly appleasant one for us, and when the unfavorable nature of the ground for us, and the first of the detailing place.

The city was startled upon to repet the areachly species.

The city was startled upon to rept the areachly species.

The city was detailed. Correspondent.

The city was area for us, and the third of the charge, the use of the tured and placed under guard behind the office counter.

when the Twentieth Corps, Gon. Slocans, took possession of the place. So Atlanta is oars, and fairly won.

"Since the 5th of May we have been in one constant."

Landtown our advance guard encountered the Rebel were enacted, and a great many of our men were placed. The money belonging to possess the first was naturally of the scenario and the impossibility of the scenario may falsify the reports of the most active acouts. The Block. It was impossible to get any considerable force rence, however, demonstrates the fact that henceforth one regiment from Missouri and one from Mississppt, tered over the entire city; and it was, for the same has proved a cheap school, if, by the loss of 250 men, one regiment from Missouri and one from Mississppi, tered over the entire city; and it was for the same mostly wounded and prisoners, our military has been numbering about 2500 men, all cavalry. The expedition reason, equally impossible to transmit orders to the difficult incited to such vigitance as will insure the city against incited to such vigitance as will insure the city against discovered until they were within one hundred yards of and went to the armory of the 24 Militia regiment, MISCILLANEOUS INCIDENTS. our progress was savagely disputed inco by inch, the or infantry had been marching rapidly, what the carp of the 137th Bilnois, one handred days men. The Cayoso Hospital was attacked by a force of one in the camp of the 137th Bilnois, one handred days men. ECCHESTER Y. T., Sept. 3-3 p. m. [long) in compelling them to seek another last direction of Jonesboro, and As the main body of the rabels came up, a spirited hundred and fifty Rebels, who fired upon and wounded levee. His failure, he says is attributable to the fact one of the sauards, and afterward poured several heavy.

See Fifth Fage.

cease firing. Proceeding to the rear of the they captured eight or ten convalescents, one of whom A negro, seeing a squad of Rebels coming through Court-street, secreted himself behind the corner of ad dley, and as they passed threw a paving-stone in the ran through the ailey, but had not gone more than one found, not more than fifty being taken off alive. By an o'clock the tiring had become incessant, as we began to lauve the city, concentrating for that purpose at the end of Poel-street. At the same time a force of about two hundred Federals were hartily got together hundred yards before he was shot and killed. Negroes were merellessly shot down wherever they could be

As the Rebels moved out of town, our small pursuing force followed closely until the picket line was read of the city to join in the pursuit. On nearing the pickfour remaining guns of the 7th Wisconsin Bat down the Hernando road. As it was useless to fellow with infantty, and our disposable cavalry force was the streets, pursuing and fiving at a most every one they boy of the bluff, and both of the negroes fell. Looking longs of panic-stricken people, and squads of the on- doubtedly attracted their attention. After several balts their true saidlerly bearing under the most try- resistance. The militia in most instances were unable income his saidle-girth, placed under his saidle for house-tops. But the loss of his numiliated garment was Lieut.-Col. Forrest, with 200 of the advanced guard, the cause of his release. From here he, with about 30 for the General. But a few minutes before this camped here, but were on the starch egain by midnight, o Gea, Washburn's quarters and informed him of the dered to be released, and your correspondent and five state of affairs. He directly went out on the street, but other citizens were left to find their road back to is necessly the building was assaulted in front. As he he will throw his hat or cout on the ground, the bull will was leaving the premises he was ordered to halt and, quit the chase and vent his rage upon the article alling to comply, several shots were fired after him, but dropped. A rule somewhat shallar seems to apply to His staff, with one exception (Lieut. | Rober human nature. A gang of reiders sushed olding for about swenty minutes, the search was Gen. Bustin opened the fight on ourside with only ed, and the party left, taking with them the nine men, with whom he held a force of fifty Rebels at Third Texas Cavalry, and the following nato (with others of which I have heard but and whether singly or in squads, was never surpressed. which was policid up by one of the 7th lid. Two soldiers were attached by five Rebels who dashed up and fired at them, but without striking them. The what was stolen from Gen. Washburn will never arise, only emptying their guns, and the Fort was shelling the

THE RESULT The Rebels captured about 200 prisoners, including From Headquorters the Rebels proceeded to the Gay- civizens and negrees. Nearly if not quite all the citizens sing-place of officers, and riding into the public hall in wounded about 100 more. The number of negroes killed over which it was necessary to charge, is taken Maj F. W. Miz. th Michigan, slightly wounded, brought in. the whole party laughed beisterously. While the search the firing of the signal for the assembling of the militia. In five minutes after word the streets were filled with into consideration it will be seen that something more than ordinary skill and nerve was requisite to ensure success. Our cavalry were harrassed from the ensure success. Our cavalry were harrassed from the sufficient number of ambulances for such a lazardous right flath, and cear, by a warm musketry fire from the raile. Ges. Kilpatrick deserves great praise for the Not being successful in finding Gen. Hurbut, who important the sum of th the same movement, I interposed my whole army bestreen Atlants and the part of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the part of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the control of the enemy intreached in

All and some movements are the and the enemy introduced are the some of main column was discussed in the enemy introduced and was renew.

The column the form of the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the enemy introduced are the name of Mail-Gen. For rest in the introduced are the name of Mail-G thick woods. Directly in front of our main column was daring determination he displayed in attempting to pened to be spending the night with a friend in the city, While the Rebels were at the Gayose House, Lieut. | that Dick Taylor, who is at present enjoying a radiou-Harrington, of the 3d United States Artillery, was cap-tured and placed under guard behind the office counter, that he has succeeded in crossing from Arkansas into tured and placed under guard behind the office counter.

A few minutes after he was placed there, a Rebel on the sidewalk fired through the window at him, the ball passing through his head, killing him instantly. The body town, and had already occupied the subarbs. It is was at once rided of overything valuable and left lying a psychological phenomenon that the power of rea-soning which wen possess frequently makes them Capt. Cook, of Huribut's staff, had $2,000 taken from the most unreasonable belogs in the world. THE ATTACK ON HEVING BLOCK PRISON.

Invine Block, the military prison of the district, is However, there was certainly something the matters the signal gun was fired, the different militia regiments were under arms, the streets were barricaded, bales of

From prisoners taken by Forrest, and who escaped